RIASSUNTI DI TESI DI DOTTORATO DI RICERCA

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| ARDIT M.: Lattice relaxation in solid solutions: long-range vs. short-range structure around Cr <sup>3+</sup> and Co <sup>2+</sup> in oxides and silicates   | 40  |
| AZZALI E.: Mineralogical and chemical evolution of ochreous precipitates related to Acid Mine Drainage processes in the Roşia Montană gold mine (Romania) and in the Libiola Fe- and Cu-sulfide mine (Italy) | 49  |
| BARTOLI O.: When the continental crust melts: a combined study of melt inclusions and classical petrology on the Ronda migmatites  | 56  |
| CAVIGLIA C.: Quantitative evaluation of the Piedmont Plain groundwater resources aimed at their conservation and rational use  | 63  |
| CORREALE A.: A two-component mantle extending from Mt. Etna to Hyblean Plateau (eastern Sicily) as inferred by an integrated approach with noble gases, trace elements and isotope geochemistry              | 66  |
| de FERRI L.: Characterization and ageing of medieval-like glass for the design of protective coatings  | 73  |
| DESTEFANIS E.: Natural background level of heavy metals in Piedmont groundwater  | 83  |
| DI BENEDETTO C.: Evaluation of petrophysical parameters of the Neapolitan Yellow Tuff and the Vicenza Stone: experimental investigation on conservation of macroporous building stones                       | 88  |
| DIOGUARDI F.: Explosive volcanic eruptions: from fragmentation to eruption columns. An integrated modellistic-experimental approach  | 93  |
| GIACOBBE C.: High temperature reactions of serpentine group minerals   | 101 |
| GIUSTINI F.: Study on the origin of CO <sub>2</sub> in the gaseous emissions of central Italy  | 110 |
| MASOTTA M.: Magma differentiation in shallow, thermally zoned magma chambers: the example of Sabatini Volcanic District (central Italy)  | 119 |
| MAVRIS C.: Initial stages of soil and clay mineral formation   | 127 |
| MEDAS D.: Hydrozincite bioprecipitation: a promising tool for bioremediation of waters contaminated by harmful metals. Hydrochemical factors and morphological features of the biomineralization process     | 131 |
| PARISI F.: A Bader's topological approach for the characterization of pressure induced phase transitions   | 140 |

|---|-----|
| PISCAGLIA F.: The high temperature geothermal field of the Apacheta-Aguilucho Volcanic Complex (northern Chile): geo-petrographic surface exploration, crustal heat sources and cap-rocks | 148 |
| ROMANO V.: Petrologic study of the post-Hercynian dyke magmatism in Calabria and Sicily   | 154 |
| RONI E.: Magma flow in shallow-level laccoliths and their feeder dykes (Elba Island and Orciatice, Tuscany) revealed by AMS and structural data   | 161 |
| SACCO V.: The Castagna Unit's mylonitic rocks: petrological-structural study and geodynamic implications  | 164 |
| STAGNO V.: The carbon speciation in the Earth's interior as function of pressure, temperature and oxygen fugacity   | 170 |
| TERZAGO S.: Climatic change in western Italian Alps: analysis of snow precipitation variability during the period 1925-2010 using historical and satellite time series                    | 178 |
| ZUCCHINI A.: Dolomite stability as a function of P, T, $p\text{CO}_2$ and cation ordering. Applications to natural processes  | 187 |
